

Kathryn's background is rooted in philanthropy. She has over 20 years experience in the nonprofit sector. Prior to joining the Mathematics Institute of Wisconsin, she spent five years as President and CEO of the Waukesha County Community Foundation. Kathryn serves on the Board of Directors for Wisconsin Philanthropy Network and is currently the Board Chair.

As the daughter of two educators, Kathryn strongly believes in the nobility of the teaching profession and that quality teachers change students' lives. Kathryn joined the Math Institute in 2016 with aspirations of changing how society thinks about math and how it is taught. In 2019, Kathryn received her M.S. in Organizational Leadership and Administration from Concordia University.

Kathryn resides in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin with her husband Dennis. They are the proud parents of sons Blake, Ethan and Brett and their Brindle Boxer Bella.
