End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin: The Wisconsin Coalition Against Domestic Violence (End Abuse) is a statewide coalition of anti-violence organizational members, allied partners, and individual members that envisions communities fully engaged to provide safety and to give a voice to all affected by domestic abuse, while creating the social change necessary to address its root causes. We honor the wisdom and strength of domestic abuse survivors across the lifespan. Our mission is achievable through survivor-centered work that includes strategic partnerships and collaboration. As advocates for social justice, we embrace the voices of diverse communities. Based in Madison, Wisconsin, with staff across the state and country, End Abuse is a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization dedicated to creating safer communities and freedom from domestic abuse and other forms of oppression across the lifespan. End Abuse works with, and on behalf of, its partners and member agencies on a wide array of initiatives. These efforts include public policy and systems advocacy, legal program, homicide prevention, outreach to underserved communities, human trafficking awareness, engaging youth, economic empowerment, coordinated community response, technical assistance to member programs, and management of statewide prevention funding. Additionally, End Abuse houses a national elder abuse program and a culturally specific advocacy program.

Reporting to the Board of Directors, the Executive Director is the leader of the organization and is responsible for guiding and directing the activities of End Abuse by centering the survivors we serve. The Executive Director is responsible for the overall administration of End Abuse’s objectives and mission, services, and initiatives. Additionally, the Executive Director ensures the achievement of short and long-term strategic, programmatic, and financial goals, as well as the delivery of quality services by staff. End Abuse works to foster change in economic, social, and political systems and bring leadership expertise and best practices to Wisconsin domestic abuse programs and communities engaged in ending domestic abuse across the lifespan. On the individual level, all End Abuse personnel will work to further their personal capacity to foster an environment of cultural inclusivity and sensitivity that is the foundation for all the work. End Abuse honors the dignity and welfare of its staff and supports a healthy work-life balance. The Executive Director is responsible for overseeing all operations, ensuring all policies and guidelines established by the Board of Directors are upheld.
