The Wisconsin Partnership Program (WPP) at the UW School of Medicine and Public Health is seeking Program Officers to join our team!

Program Officers play a pivotal role in advancing WPP’s mission and strategic priorities by developing and implementing grant programs across a broad portfolio of community partnerships, education, and research initiatives.

Each year, WPP allocates approximately $17 million in funding through numerous community and faculty grant programs and supports more than 100 active grants. Program Officers serve as WPP’s principal contacts with applicants and grantees. Position responsibilities include:

- Assist in development and implementation of faculty and community grant programs
- Identify and maintain stakeholder partnerships across Wisconsin
- Advise communications and lead outreach activities
- Provide technical assistance to support applicants and grantees
- Inform convening activities, including curriculum for grantee learning collaboratives
- Ensure grantee compliance with WPP terms and conditions
- Our team is highly collaborative and committed to WPP’s vision to ensure that everyone in Wisconsin will live full and healthy lives.

Applications are due August 14, 2022

https://jobs.hr.wisc.edu/en-us/job/514474/program-officer

Our Mission
To bring about lasting improvements in health and well-being and advance health equity in Wisconsin through investments in community partnerships, education, and research. The UW School of Medicine and Public Health is committed to being a diverse, equitable, inclusive, and anti-racist workplace and is an Equal Employment Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer. Applications from Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC) individuals, LGBTQ+ and non-binary identities, women, persons with disabilities, military service members and veterans are strongly encouraged.